

Items Commonly Covered by Insurance

Oakley Home Access is proud to accept Participating Rhode Island State Insurances. This means that many of the upgrades needed to keep your home safe may be partially or fully covered.

Currently Accepted Insurances:

RI Medicaid- Fee for Service (Anchor Card) & Contracted State Plans including Neighborhood Health Plans, & UnitedHealth Community Plan

Aluminum Modular Ramps

- Must be Installed in a Residence
- Must be Aluminum Modular with 1:12
- Suitcase Ramps Not Covered

Stairlifts: Straight, Curved, Indoor, Outdoor

- Must be into a Residence
- Must be to a Floor with a Restroom

Vertical Platform Lifts

- Coverage When Ramp is More Expensive That a Lift
 - Ex. A Higher Rise Needed, Approx 42-168 inches)
- Site Preparation not Included

Overhead & Ceiling Lifts

- In Bedrooms for Bed to Wheelchair Transfers
- Ceiling Mounted Included
- Free Standing Castor System Included

Grab Bars & Shower Chairs/Benches

- Limited Coverage
- Often Time a Co-Pay is Required

Not Covered At This Time

- Handrails
- Railings
- Tub Cuts